Rev. Archdeacon Cody, D.D.,

603 Jarvis Street,

Toronto.

My dear Archdeacon:

This is just to remind you that you were good enough to say that you would preach the University Sermon on December 16th. We always enjoy having you at the University.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Venerable Archdeacon Cody, D.D. LL.D.,

603 Jarvis Street,

Toronto.

My dear Archdeacon:

I should like very much to be present when the tablet in memory of Lieutenant Maurice Malone is unveiled next Sunday morning both for his own sake and for his father's, but I do not think I can leave the university service on that occasion, because probably I shall have to take the prayers myself and Dr. Peabody who is the preacher for that day is to be my guest. May I ask you to express to Mr. Malone my deep regret that I cannot be there ?

Yours sincerely,

President.

Venerable Archdeacon Cody,

Toronto.

My dear Archdeacon:

You will remember that I spoke to you at St. Andrew's College about the necessity of our dropping the University Service next Sunday owing to our having brought forward the closing of the Michaelmas Term to Friday, the 14th, in order that students may get away to vote. I regret exceedingly that we are not able to have you give the sermon this term, and our plans for next term are completed. If we should hear of any vacancy I hope that it may be possible to have you take a day for us, though I know it is not fair to ask you to do so on short notice. In any case we shall look forward to having you, if you will be good enough to come, in the first term next year. With many thanks for your consenting to take the service and regrets that we are not to have you.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Honourable H. J. Cody, LL.D.,

Minister of Education,

Toronto.

Dear Dr. Cody:

In view of the changes that have been announced with regard to specialist certificates in the matter of German and those which the University is on the point of making our staff in Modern Languages would like to have an interview with you in order that they may discuss the kind of courses that should be announced as qualifying for specialist certificates. If you will be good enough to let us know a date that will be convenient I will have the Modern Language staff notified ?

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
